WE'RE INDEPENDENT AGENTS, NOT PUSHY SALES PEOPLE.

No one at Mensh Insurance is going to sell you insurance you don't need. What we will do is advise you and help you build the insurance portfolio you want. We've been in the insurance business for a long time. And people trust us. We see many of our clients every day -- whether it's on the soccer field or at the grocery store. We pride ourselves that we only sell policies from companies that have an A or higher rating. That means you can be assured you're getting the best, even when you're shopping for the best price. Some of the well respected insurance companies that we might recommend for you include: John Hancock, Met Life, Guardian, Berkshire, Standard, Genworth and Transamerica.

Danny consistently meets and exceeds our expectations of a world class service provider.
